

Henry Trory

Barrister

Overview

Called to the bar in 2003, Henry is an experienced barrister specialising in family, employment and civil practice. A tenacious advocate, he prides himself on his approachability and forensic attention to detail when preparing cases.

In the words of one instructing solicitor, “Henry has recently done an absolutely outstanding job ... he was consistently available to discuss the case and provide invaluable advice ... we secured a fantastic result ... I believe largely as a result of the huge amount of work Counsel put in.”

Notable Cases

Family

Henry is experienced in all areas of public and private law proceedings, including complex allegations of physical and sexual harm. Recent notable cases include the following:

2011 -

Acted for Mother in care proceedings in which she was alleged to have cause multiple injuries to the child. Complex matter necessitating a 10-day finding-of-fact hearing.

2013 -

Represented Mother in a 9-day matter in the High Court concerning the placement of children in a non-Hague Convention state.

2014 -

Successfully acted in care proceedings for a father alleged to have sexually abused his child from a previous relationship. Attended hearings involving the Police, who resisted disclosure of material. Successfully applied to cross-examine the complainant, who was still a child. At the conclusion of the Local Authority's case, it sought leave to withdraw the allegations and discontinue proceedings.

2015 -

Represented Father at a 5-day final hearing involving important live evidence from a Psychologist. At the conclusion of the hearing, the children were placed in the care of Father under a Care Order.
