

Mark Styles

Barrister

Overview

Mark has been a member of chambers for 24 years and a practitioner on the North Eastern Circuit for over 30 years. He has developed a wide ranging criminal practice.

Mark defends exclusively in Crime. His practice involves complex casework, defence work off circuit, both leading junior and led work in multi defendant heavier fraud and drug conspiracy cases. His practice also includes representation on behalf of clients facing charges of causing death by dangerous driving and historic sexual offences. Mark has dealt with serious gang related criminal matters and offences ranging widely from murder and other grave offences of violence including assisting attempted suicide.

He travels widely on and off circuit and deals consistently with a heavy caseload of good quality criminal work. Mark has been involved in regulatory work for many years acting in complex prosecution work varying widely from CITES cases and other wildlife related criminal offending, to health and safety at work legislation including trading standards.

Year Of Call:

1988

Practice Areas

Crime

Regulatory