

Kate Armstrong

Barrister

Overview

PERSONAL SUMMARY

Kate has built a strong common law practice across the regulatory, family and civil jurisdictions, with a breadth of skills which are brought to bear on regulatory matters. Kate has a particular interest in inquests and disciplinary proceedings.

Having appeared in numerous Employment Tribunals, Kate has practical experience of the potential impact of internal disciplinary hearings, and a knowledge of appropriate procedure.

Kate has developed strong client handling skills, particularly in respect of dealing with clients in distressing situations, as well as an effective but sensitive approach to advocacy.

Kate accepts public access instructions.
