DERE STREET BARRISTERS

Sam Healy
Barrister

Overview

'A very capable and approachable advocate who gets directly to the point.'

The Legal 500 2021

"He put his clients at ease at a particularly difficult time. He's a brilliant negotiator, which makes him eminently suitable for alternative dispute resolution. He also produces clever cross-examination." "Approachable, good with clients, technically very knowledgeable and has excellent advocacy skills."

Chambers and Partners UK Bar 2021

Sam has appeared for HM Prison Service in a number of Inquests arising out of deaths in custody. He has appeared in front of Coroners in numerous regions, including Hull, Wakefield and Crook, Co. Durham.

Sam has also appeared before internal disciplinary hearings for a number of different types of professionals, particularly teachers, and appeared before FA disciplinary panels.

NOTABLE CASES

Woodhouse –v– West North West Homes Leeds Ltd – [2013] IRLR 773 : victimisation under the Equality Act 2010, effect of Martin v. Devonshire Solicitors and Polkey reductions

Muir –v– Optimum Group Service – [2013] IRLR 339 : calculation of the Compensatory Award and the effect of a settlement received from another party

Wrexham Gold Club –v– Ingham – UKEAT/0190/12/RN : the "pool of one" in redundancy dismissal

Pipecoil –v– Heathcote – UKEAT 2012 : unfair dismissal/Polkey

Balls –v– WMCIU – UKEAT UKEAT/0119/11 :constructive unfair dismissal/whistle blowing

Abiola –v– NYCC & Eteach – UKEAT/0369/08/ DM : discrimination/victimisation

Villa Agencies SPF Ltd –v– Kestrel Travel Ltd – [2012] EWCA Civ 219 : correct approach to costs in a commercial dispute involving claim and counterclaim

PJ Spillings Ltd –v– Bonus Flooring Ltd [2008] All ER (D) 183 (Jun) : measure of damages in building dispute

Year Of Call:
1999

Practice Areas

Alternative Dispute Resolution

Civil

Company and Commercial

Early Netural Evaluation

Employment

Motor Insurance Fraud

Personal Injury and Clinical Negligence

Property

Property Dispute Resolution

Regulatory

Trusts and Probate

s.healy@derestreet.co.uk

s.healy@derestreet.co.uk.cjsm.net