

Michael Bosomworth

Barrister

Overview

Michael Bosomworth is an experienced established criminal practitioner. Formerly in Leeds Chambers he had a mixed practice (Family both private and public, Commercial Civil, Insolvency, Pharmaceutical [regulatory and criminal] as well as Crime) but he has specialised in Serious Crime for the last 15 years with a practice focused on the Northern half of the Circuit although not exclusively, with a bias towards defence work.

Particular areas of speciality are sexual offences (in particular those relating to children/youths whether as victims or alleged perpetrators), financial crime including proceedings under the Proceeds of Crime Act, drugs offences and serious violence.

Notable Cases

R v D (2011) :

Rape of child

R v W (2011) :

Sexual Activity with Child

RV Bewick (2011) :

CPS Special Case Unit - Offences Under Private Security Act (Presently Appealed Before Administrative Court) And Consequential POCA Worth £1m

R v Campbell (2010) :

Murder

RV Sharpe (2010) :

Rape And Breach Of SOPO Relating To Child - Acquitted

RV McLoughlin (2009) :

Conspiracy To Cause GBH - Acquitted.

R v M (2010) :

Historic sexual allegations relating to children

Year Of Call:

1979

Grade of Prosecutor:

Practice Areas

Crime

Professional Qualifications

University Of Nottingham
- BA (Hons.) Modern History

City University
- Diploma In Law

Inns Of Court Law School
- Bar Finals

R v Wilks (2009) :

Insolvency Offences and subsequent POCA

R v Tyres (2008) :

Section 18 GBH - acquitted