

Recent cases continued...

R v Bell [2019] (Teesside) Defending Vincent Bell who killed his brother Damian Banks by stabbing him through the heart during an argument. Acquitted of murder, convicted of manslaughter. Leading Anthony Davis of Dere Street Barristers and instructed by Richmond Anderson Goudie, Durham.

R v Grannon [2019] (Hull/Sheffield) Prosecuting Albert Grannon aged 78 who negligently shot and killed his 6 years old great grandson with an air rifle and pleaded guilty to gross negligence manslaughter. Instructed by CPS Complex Case Unit, Leeds.

R v Fletcher [2019] (Teesside) Defending Craig Fletcher who pleaded guilty to the murder of a guest in his home on Boxing Day 2018. The deceased was subjected to a prolonged assault carried out with Craig Barstow, part of which was recorded on a telephone recovered by the police. The sentencing judge categorised this as a sadistic murder when fixing a 25 year minimum term to be served. Leading David Lamb of Dere Street Barristers and instructed by BBNM Law, Redcar.

