

Mark Styles

Barrister

Overview

PERSONAL SUMMARY

Mark Styles has a wide variety of experience of practice in in criminal law for over 30 years appearing in many high profile cases. He has developed a successful practice in dealing with offences against wildlife. He also has significant experience in the Family Division, Divisional Court and Court of Appeal and has been involved in regulatory work throughout his career.

Year Of Call:

1988

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Mark has a specific interest in wildlife crime and has appeared in many cases in the Crown Court and Magistrates Court. He has specific expertise in cases concerning the persecution of birds of prey and Control of International Trade in Endangered Species prosecutions and has dealt with a wide range of offences against wild birds including trapping, egg collecting, poisoning, and illegal trade in wild birds.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Offences against Wildlife
- Professional Complaints and Discipline
- Environmental Law
- Criminal Law
- Local Authority Prosecutions

Practice Areas

Crime

Regulatory